

HOUSE NAMES OF AUSTRALIA

House Names is for people who love houses. Nameplate maker Graham Gould explains how the tradition of naming houses began and traces trends over the decades of European settlement.

If your house was built before 1930, then it possibly had a name. Graham Gould leads you through the process of researching the original name of your home, giving practical advice on how to locate the historical sources. And if your house doesn't have a name, Graham Gould provides them - he lists thousands of names of all kinds, from historical to humourous, Aboriginal to Swahili. He gives advice on choosing a name for your house, and supplies dozens of ideas on how you can create a personalised name.

FEATURES
