

CERAMIC NAMEPLATES FOR A NAME WORTH KEEPING

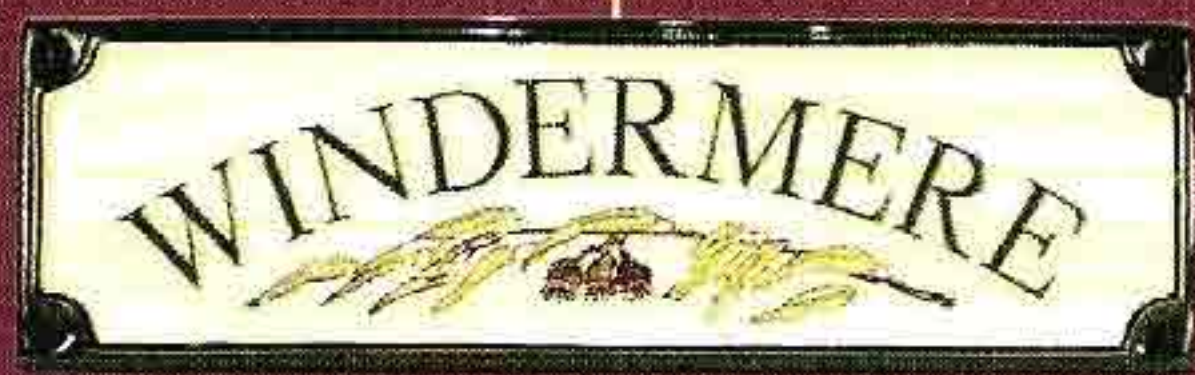

Ceramic Nameplates are a distinct and elegant tile handcrafted from earthenware clay with embossed lettering.

Ovals
A. ht: 230mm w: 320mm
B. ht: 175mm w: 240mm

Larger Ovals
C. ht: 260mm w: 490mm
D. ht: 200mm w: 470mm

Ceramic Nameplates come in the standard sizes shown or may be handcrafted to your specific size. A large range of motifs are available and we are happy to incorporate your own artwork, logos, etc. if possible.

Rectangles

E. h: 135mm w: 450mm
 F. h: 150mm w: 420mm
 G. h: 105mm w: 450mm

We also design traditional nameplates with a "classic look". The lettering and borders are hand painted with 22 carat gold or silver and then refired in a kiln for an everlasting and maintenance free finish.

Rectangles

H. h: 150mm w: 420mm
 I. h: 135mm w: 250mm
 J. h: 90mm w: 315mm

- Samples above show only some of the possible variations in design. We have 9 standard colours of weatherproof glazes. However for a small surcharge, colours can be matched to your own requirements.
- Owing to the handcrafted nature of this product, there may be some variation in the colour.
- Orders may be placed over the phone or by appointment at our showroom.
- Mounting screws and instructions are supplied.
- Payment is due upon receiving your nameplate in the post.

About the Artist

John Langford has been creating nameplates from earthenware clay for the past 22 years using various pottery techniques.

From his studio in the Dandenong Ranges, east of Melbourne, John has been handcrafting individualised signs to suit the character of his clients home.

All work is guaranteed against any damage in post, whilst mounting or any customer dissatisfaction.